III. Family Worksheet

We at La Escuelita Arcoiris strongly believe the following strengths set us apart from other early childhood programs:

- Play based, emergent curriculum, based on children’s interests
- Daily outdoor time—all year long
- Experiential, open-ended activities and art (without protective clothing)
- Volunteer-based parent involvement
- Spanish immersion in both language and culture

Please take your time in answering the following questions. The information you provide will help us gain insight into your thoughts regarding early childhood experiences.

Please use the back of this sheet if needed

Preschool Development:

1. What are you hoping to find in this education for your child?
2. Please note any details about your child that would be helpful to the teachers. For example, special interests and abilities.
3. Does your child have any special physical characteristics; any behavioral, medical, or emotional problems to overcome?
4. Do you believe children can learn by playing? Please provide an example. If you don't, why not?
5. Can you tell us about a routine that you follow at home, i.e.: getting breakfast ready, saying goodnight, etc.

Discipline:

We believe that setting boundaries in preschool encourages self-control, self-direction, communication and cooperation. Can you describe some of the boundaries you set for your child at home?

Immersion:

Language programs are most effective in the long-term. We hope that students who begin at two or three years of age stay through kindergarten and continue as a student in later years. Can you tell us about your schooling plans for both kindergarten and after La Escuelita?

Volunteerism:

We count on our families to help our program thrive. Volunteering creates a positive relationship with your child’s school, builds community for all, and ensures that your child will blossom in his or her first educational setting. Service may include board membership, craft projects, shopping, fundraising, classroom projects, or any other activities in service of the school.

How would you consider contributing your volunteer time to La Escuelita?

A non-refundable application fee of $25.00 must be enclosed with your completed application. Checks should be made payable to La Escuelita Arcoiris, with Application Fee in the Memo line, and sent to P.O. Box 81727, Pgh, PA 15217.
